Make a good van even better.

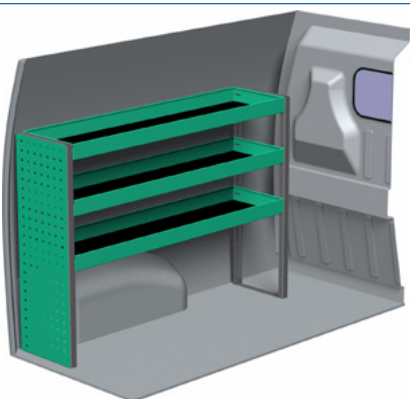

Now you have bought your van, it may be the most important part of your business for years to come. But it's just a shell and you must consider your options for turning it into an effective work tool.

Consider efficiency and safety when loading your van with tools and equipment. Know exactly where things are and know that they will stay in place when you are on the move.

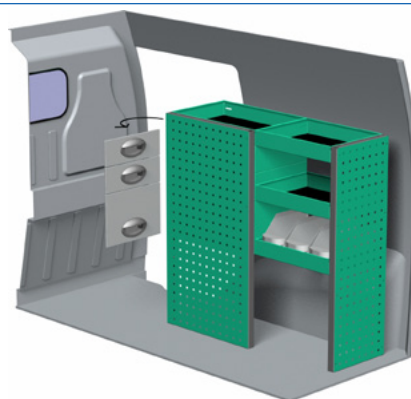

Here at System Edström we've used over 50 years experience to design and manufacture racking packages for your Ford, choose the one that suits your needs, adding or removing Edström accessories and components to get it right for you.
